Raising Kind and Compassionate Global Citizens

Monday, November 14, 6:30 –7:45 pm
Ludington Library

How can parents raise their children to be kind and compassionate global citizens – starting right here, right now? Join best-selling author and Lower Merion resident, HOMA TAVANGAR for an interactive conversation learning from her 30+ year's experience working with parents, schools and complex organizations about the skills and mindsets that can help children thrive.

This is a free FAMILY event--kids and parents welcome and encouraged to come together.

Pre-registration required at www.lmls.org

The first 25 in-person registrants will receive a free Global Kids Activity Kit! (one per family)
